Now comes John F. Richards, the pro-se Plaintiff in the above-entitled matter and prays that this Honorable Court grants him an Order and Orders the Defendants to provide the Plaintiff with meaningful and unimpeded access to the courts, adequate library time, supplies, and assistance from persons who are trained in the law, and to provide the Plaintiff with whatever funds from his account that are necessary to file his papers and other Legal Documents with the court. Also to Order all of the Defendants and their staff to stop impeding the Plaintiff's access to the courts by way of the library and supplies. The Plaintiff has a right under both the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the US Constitution to be protected in his quest to obtain access to the courts and to redress his issues within the courts without being harrassed, slowed down, or retaliated against for any reason by any of the Defendants named herein or any members of their staff.

Wherefore: The Plaintiff prays that this Honorable Court grants him this Motion and that the Defendants are Ordered to cease their behavior towards the Plaintiff, Ordered to allow the Plaintiff unimpeded access to both the Library, and the Court, and to allow the plaintiff the funds for both supplies and legal cost and fees, and to advise the Defendants and their staff against further retaliating against the Plaintiff for exercising his Constitutionally protected rights.

Respectfully Submitted,

John F. Richards pro-se,
